SiEBEN recognizes the business need of small companies for dynamic sales networks and an automation of their business processes. Our company's main objective is to respond to the increasing needs of the particular enterprises combining the effectiveness with the low cost.

For this reason we developed PocketBiz Sales Express, the perfect solution for companies with up to 5 salesmen.

The application's main characteristic is its low cost and the rapid implementation.

Using PocketBiz Sales Express your salesmen can communicate with the company back-office system, exchange fast, easily and without errors new orders and invoices and receive critical information for the customers.
